

Hebrews 11:3 versions

KJ21

Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

AMP

.....what is seen was made out of things which are not visible.

CEB

By faith we understand that the universe has been created by a word from God so that the visible came into existence from the invisible.

CEV

Because of our faith, we know that the world was made at God's command. We also know that what can be seen was made out of what cannot be seen.

DARBY

By faith we apprehend that the worlds were framed by [the] word of God, so that that which is seen did not take its origin from things which appear(are seen).

ISV

By faith we understand that time was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are invisible.

TLB

By faith—by believing God—we know that the world and the stars—in fact, all things—were made at God's command; and that they were all made from things that can't be seen.

MSG

By faith, we see the world called into existence by God's word, what we see created by what we don't see.

MOUNCE

By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not brought into being from anything observable.

NOG

Faith convinces us that God created the world through his word. This means what can be seen was made by something that could not be seen.

NABRE

By faith we understand that the universe was ordered by the word of God, so that what is visible came into being through the invisible.

NCV

It is by faith we understand that the whole world was made by God's command so what we see was made by something that cannot be seen.

NET

By faith we understand that the worlds were set in order at God's command, so that the visible has its origin in the invisible.

NIRV

We have faith. So we understand that everything was made when God commanded it. That's why we believe that what we see was not made out of what could be seen.

NLT

By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

NTE

It is by faith that we understand that the worlds were formed by God's word; in other words, that the visible world was not made from visible things.

TLV

By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen did not come from anything visible.

WE

We believe in God, so that is how we know that God made the world by his word. The things we see were made out of things that cannot be seen.

WYC

By faith we understand that the worlds were made by God's word [By faith we understand the worlds to be shaped, or made, by God's word], that visible things were made of invisible things.
