Your 'Navigation' System Pt. 4

John 16:13

Romans 8:14

Proverbs 20:27

Trusting God's Holy Spirit navigation system is built on:

God's Omnipresence - present everywhere at all times

God's Omniscience - perfect insight into all situations

God's Omnipotence - perfect ability to achieve results

Kenneth E. Hagin:

In February 1959 in El Paso, TX, the Lord appeared to me in a vision. He talked to me about the ministry of the prophet. Then he said:

"I did not put prophets in the Church to guide the New Testament Church. My Word says, 'As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God', (Rom. 8:14). Now if you will listen to me, I am going to teach you how to follow My Spirit. Then I want you to teach My people how to be led by the Spirit."

The “heart of: any navigation system is its ability to determine your location.

Global positioning system: determines latitude, longitude, elevation

Mapping -

Routing:

- Once your position and destination are known, the system calculates the optimal route using complex algorithms. These consider factors like:
 - Shortest distance
 - Fastest route
 - Alternative routes

Guidance:

- The navigation system guides you with visual and audio cues:
 - Visual: The map displays your position, the route highlighted, and upcoming turns.
 - Audio: Voice prompts tell you when to turn, change lanes, or prepare for upcoming maneuvers.

Real-time traffic updates!

John G. Lake:

While ministering in a city in northern Illinois, the chore boy at the hotel where we were staying asked for help in sawing down a large tree. I volunteered to assist him. As we sawed the tree, the Spirit of the Lord spoke within my spirit clearly and distinctly: "Go to Indianapolis. Prepare for a winter campaign. Get a large hall. In the spring you will go to Africa."

Charles Parham:

Here is a wonderful story Dr. Lake is sharing about Charles Parham....father of modern day Pentecost. This is the following portion after the previous post about the young man whose soul called excellent people to him. Here Parham's soul called those hungry for the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, a greater move of God to him:

"Over in Topeka, Kansas, in the year 1900, one morning a man stepped off the train, walked up the street, and as he walked up a particular street he stopped in front of a large fine dwelling, and said to himself, "This is the house." A gentlemen who happened to be out of sight around the building said, "What about the house?" and this story came out.

He (Charles Parham) said: "For years I have been praying God for a certain work of God among Christians known as the Baptism of the Holy Ghost. In my researches I have visited every body of Christian people in this country that I knew of that claimed to be possessors of the baptism, but as I visited and examined their experiences and compared it with the Word of God, I became convinced that none of them possessed the Baptism of the Holy Ghost as it is recorded and demonstrated in the New Testament. He said one day as he prayed, the Spirit of the Lord said, "Go to Topeka, Kansas." As he prayed he observed in the Spirit a certain house, and the Lord said, "I will give you that house, and in it the Baptism of the Holy Ghost will fall."

So he took the train and came to Topeka, walked down the street, and exclaimed as he passed by, "This is the house," and the voice around the corner replied, "What about it?"

When the man had heard his story, he told him he was the owner of the house; that it had been closed for years. He asked him what he wanted it for, and he replied that he was going to start a Christian school. The owner said, "Have you any money?" He replied, "No." He said, "All right, you can have the house without money."

About an hour later a little Quaker lady came down the street, hesitated and looked around and said, "This is the house, but there is no one living there." After a struggle with her soul she went up and rang the door bell and the first gentlemen answered the bell and asked what she wanted. She said: "I live over in the country at such a place. As I prayed, the Spirit told me to come here to this house."

He said, "Who are you?"

She replied, "Just an unknown Christian woman."

He said: "What have you been praying about?"

She said, "About the Baptism of the Holy Ghost."

Beloved, in three weeks eighteen persons were brought to that house. They formed a little company and began to pray. The company grew to thirty-six. On New Years night, 1900, the Spirit fell on that company, and the first one was baptised in the Holy Ghost, and in a few weeks practically the whole company had been baptised in the Holy Ghost.

And from there is spread over the world."

Healing Journeys:

Merci Santos: MS

The Lord gave me Acts 3

Jeremiah Klass:

“Trust Me, you are already healed. I’ve got you in My hands.”

He gave me 1 Peter 2:24...within 2 weeks of Him saying that to me over and over He talked me into receiving.

He said: You’re trying to receive something that you were supposed to already have.

Yvonne Smith: Multiple myeloma & breast cancer

Listened to Andrew for years, knew her authority, etc.

God said: Set back with me.

two large cancers disappeared

4 mos. later - cancer of plasma cells in bone marrow

God: Are you ready to get real with this thing? Don’t look up on the internet, look up to me!

Vonya Curry: cancer

After expecting healing but got a ‘worst test yet’ - I heard God say: “This isn’t you!”

Mike Hoesch: 5 lb tumor - 7 yrs legalistically trying to get healed

“Mike, pay attention to what I am saying to you. Stretch out your ear to hear only what I am saying to you and don’t take your eyes off it but keep what you’re hearing from me in your heart, because that’s going to show you where life is and when you find that life, it will be health to all your flesh.”

He was right there to encourage me, He reminded me of things I had believed for in the past.
